

Disney Springs Scavenger Hunt

-  Feel light as a Magic Feather as you float up above on a tether.
-  At this waterfall I'll see ya later where you will find a snapping gator.
-  The alien perched on top of the "world" will squirt you with water, so give this a whirl.
-  This silly sea serpent is a sight to behold. He's built from the bricks of a Danish mold.
-  An evil fairy transforms in the night to this magnificent dragon stacked with fright.
-  From two magic kingdoms these princesses arrive. They are only displays, but they look so alive.
-  This towering structure appears to be old. It welcomes new guests with a sign big and bold.
-  In the center of town the springs welcome all and this wheel makes them rise and fall.
-  You'll feel welcome when you get off your feet. At this town center porch you can rock to the beat.
-  Fire and smoke might seem dangerous to some, but tis active volcano is all about fun.
-  Amphibians live in water and land, but ampicars are truly grand.
-  These horses made in Italy, prance in circles for you and me.
-  This long necked Dino was really cool. Now it's a fossil where you find fuel.
-  In the Holiday Season there are more to see, but here year round, you'll find this tree.
-  In the Marketplace, you can cut loose between the engine and caboose.
-  The most beloved of all toons is characterized in these balloons.
-  With Tiny arms and Jaw open wide, this Dino welcomes you inside.
-  This artful wall is cool to touch, does it feel "frozen"? Not so much!
